Call for applicants: Zero Waste Marin, formally known as the Marin County Hazardous and Solid Waste Management Joint Powers Authority (JPA), has a vacancy for a public member seat on our Local Task Force (LTF). Knowledge of environmental issues and solid waste management is desirable. Note that for this seat, the member must reside in one of the following areas: Ross Valley, Southern Marin, or an unincorporated area of Marin County.

About Zero Waste Marin

Zero Waste Marin is the informal name for the Marin Hazardous and Solid Waste Joint Powers Authority (JPA). Our main goals include:

- Achieve the County-wide zero waste goals
- Provide information and resources for the safe disposal of hazardous waste
- Provide education and outreach to residents and businesses on waste reduction, recycling, composting, and waste disposal
- Ensure compliance with California State waste laws

For more information about Zero Waste Marin and the LTF, check out zerowastemarin.org.

About the Local Task Force

The main purpose of the LTF is to serve as an advisory body to the Zero Waste Marin JPA Board of Directors. As an advisory group, the LTF provides guidance to the JPA Board of Directors on emerging solid waste issues relevant to Marin County and assists in the review of the JPA's Integrated Waste Management Plan. The LTF provides viewpoints and concerns from different geographical areas of the County, solid waste haulers/facility operators, special districts, and environmental organizations.

The Details

To help ensure your availability to participate, interested individuals should note that the LTF meets every other month on the first Thursday of the month from 10am – 11am. Appointment to this vacancy will be considered by the JPA Board at a future Board Meeting, date to be determined. We encourage you to review past Agendas and Minutes online to see how a typical LTF meeting is conducted.

Applications will be accepted on an ongoing basis, but we encourage you to apply by December 1st. To help identify potential conflicts of interest, any applicant selected for the LTF is required to disclose certain financial interests, if any, via a CFPPC Form 700 each year as specified in the JPA Conflict of Interest Code. Please contact Casey Fritz at casey.fritz@marincounty.gov with any questions.
